

A revised version of the final determination concerning miscellaneous refrigeration products will be uploaded to address certain pre-publication related issues that were identified. DOE expects to issue a replacement document soon.