

PROJECT MANGEMENT PLAN EXAMPLES

Safety Integration - Process Systems Evaluation Examples

Example 17

Process Systems Evaluation

This subject is an integral part of the hierarchical and checklist end points methods that are described elsewhere on this web site. In both cases there are steps to identify systems that must remain operational after a facility is deactivated, as well as spaces that must be accessible. These methods also address deciding which systems are no longer needed, and those considered for preservation for future decommissioning work.