CONFIDENTIAL FOREIGN GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
- MODIFIED HANDLING AUTHORIZED -

As defined by Executive Order 13526, Section 6.1(S), "Foreign Government Information" means:

- (1) information provided to the U.S. Government by a foreign government or governments, an international organization of governments, or any element thereof, with the expectation that the information, the source of the information, or both are to be held in confidence;
- (2) information produced by the United States pursuant to or as a result of a joint arrangement with a foreign government or governments, or a international organization of governments, or any element thereof, requiring that the information, the arrangement, or both, are to be held in confidence: or
- (3) information received and treated as "Foreign Government Information" under the terms of a predecessor order.

The attached document(s) contains Foreign Government Information (FGI), as defined by Executive Order 13526, "Classified National Security Information," that the foreign government protects at a level lower than U.S. CONFIDENTIAL.

Access to the attached information does not require an access authorization or personnel security clearance. However, access to this information must only be granted to persons with an established need-to-know and whose official duties require access. This information must not be disclosed to a third party government, individual, group, or organization not involved in the applicable agreement or treaty without the expressed, written permission from the originator.

This document(s) must be transmitted using approved U.S. classified methods unless this requirement is waived by the owning foreign government. It must be destroyed as required for a U.S. CONFIDENTIAL classified document.

When not in use, this document must be stored in a locked receptacle (e.g., file cabinet, desk, bookcase) that is accessible only by persons who have a need to know the information to perform their official duties to ensure protection against unauthorized disclosure or access by unauthorized personnel.

This Cover Sheet May Be Applied to All Qualified FGI Documents
While Under U.S. Control in U.S. Facilities.
