FOIA - 2 HOURS SEARCH FREE, 100 FREE PAGES

Dear Secretary Bodman:

This is a Freedom of Information Act request. I am seeking a copy of the following documents:

Support data for your department's decision to announce a thirty million dollar effort with Ford, General Motors, and General Electric, on Thursday, June 11, 2008. The announcement included a stated goal: "To bring to market by 2014 plug-in hybrid electric cars that drive 40 miles on a single charge." Please include relevant information on how the Energy Department determined that the thirty million dollars would be best spent with the aforementioned companies rather than with the entrepreneurial ventures currently demonstrating vehicles that exceed 40 miles per charge.

In order to help you determine my status for purposes of deciding the applicability of any fees, you should know that I am an individual seeking information for personal use as a citizen active in public discourse. This information is not for any commercial use currently anticipated. I am willing to pay fees for this request up to a maximum of $10.00. If you estimate that the fees will exceed this limit, please inform me first.

I request a waiver of all fees for this request. Disclosure of the requested information to me is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of activities and the operations of the government and is not primarily of commercial interest. I routinely write letters to the editors of major newspapers and news sites, maintain a personal web-log and regularly correspond with my elected representatives.

I request that the information I seek be provided in electronic format, and I would prefer to receive it on a CD-ROM.

I also include a telephone number at which I can be contacted during the hours of 9:00am to 9:00pm, if necessary, to discuss any aspect of my request.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Record Description:

This request is for all records concerning "work for others" activities by the Department of Energy at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory's Site 300 on behalf of the Department of Homeland Security and the Department of Defense. The request includes, but is not limited to, all records concerning permitting, hazardous wastes, explosives testing, and the transfer or closure of Site 300.

Preferred Form or Format: CD-ROM

Type of Requester (if provided):

Affiliated with an educational or noncommercial scientific institution, and this request is made for scholarly or scientific purpose and not for commercial use.

Fees and Fee Waivers:

I request a waiver or reduction of fees.

Waiver or Reduction of Fees Factors (if provided):

1. The subject of the request: Whether the subject of the requested records concerns "the operations or activities of the government."

The Department of Energy ("DOE"), Department of Home Land Security ("HLS") and the Department of Defense ("DOD") and their operations and activities are operations and activities of the government.

2. The informative value of the information to be disclosed: Whether the disclosure is "likely to contribute" to an understanding of government operations or activities.

Review and dissemination by Tri-Valley CAREs of the documents regarding "work for others" activities at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory ("LLNL"), Site 300 will contribute to an understanding of government operations and activities. To date, the Department of Energy ("DOE") has used Site 300 as an explosives testing and treatment facility. However, more recently DOE has not gained as much as it had in the past from using Site 300 for these purposes. Rather, DOE has been contracting with other agencies for some of the work done at Site 300 and has placed the air quality permit for Site 300 on hold. Disclosure of DOE documents with regard to "work for others" and the overall future of Site 300 is likely to contribute to the understanding of government operations in terms of the future of Site 300, environmental concerns that might arise from "work for others" activities at Site 300 and allow the public to develop and understand a web of understanding of accountability at Site 300. This information will also allow nearby communities to cultivate appropriate and accurate development plans that include reasonable accounts of the future activities of Site 300.

3. The contribution to an understanding by the general public of the subject likely to result from disclosure, taking into account your ability and intent to disseminate the information to the public in a form that can further understanding of the subject matter.

Tri-Valley CAREs uses information obtained through FOIA to help the general public and others understand the operations and activities of the government, specifically DOE and its Livermore Lab. Tri-Valley CAREs publishes a monthly newsletter, circulated free of charge to interested parties. Information obtained from FOIA requests is used in the newsletter to increase public understanding of government activities, and it is expected that information obtained through this request will be used in our newsletter. In addition, Tri-Valley CAREs uses information derived from FOIA requests in its fact sheets, reports, and other materials that are distributed, like our newsletter, to the media, elected officials, regulatory agencies, other organizations, and the general public. Information is also available on our web site at <http://www.trivalleycares.org>. Moreover, information provided by Tri-Valley CAREs is used regularly by local, regional, and national media. Tri-Valley CAREs seeks these records in order to inform the public about an important government activity: the current actions and contracts and the future of Site 300. This information is of an indeterminable value to members of the communities that are affected by Site 300. Tri-Valley CAREs is in a position to disseminate this information. By obtaining these records, Tri-Valley CAREs will benefit the public and contribute to its general understanding. This is the group's mission, as laid out in its articles of incorporation and reflected by its 501(c)(3) status.

4. The significance of the contribution to public understanding: Whether the disclosure is likely to contribute "significantly" to public understanding of government operations or activities.

The documents requested will offer much needed insight into the future plans of the DOE with regard to Site 300. Site 300 has been in a sort of limbo state with regard to both its air permit and the identities of which agencies are doing what sort of work at that site. The information set forth in these documents will contribute significantly to the understanding, planning and foresight of the communities that are significantly affected by the activities at Site 300 on a perpetual basis. Therefore, disclosure of this information will contribute significantly to public understanding of government operations and activities. Additionally, Tri-Valley CAREs has the means (see above) and the track record to be "likely to contribute 'significantly' to public understanding."

5. The existence and magnitude of a commercial interest: Whether the requester has a commercial interest that would be furthered by the requested disclosure, and, if so

This is not applicable in the case of Tri-Valley CAREs. As mentioned, Tri-Valley CAREs is a 501(c)(3) public benefit organization. We provide the information to the public free of charge.

6. The primary interest in disclosure: Whether the magnitude of the identified commercial interest of the requester is sufficiently large, in comparison with the public interest in disclosure, that disclosure is "primarily in the commercial interest of the requester."

Tri-Valley CAREs is a 501(c)(3) not for profit organization. It does not have any commercial or for profit interest in the information being requested. Since, there is no commercial interest at stake, the enormous public interest at stake, disclosure is primarily in the interest of public knowledge.

Expedited Processing:

I believe a compelling need exists to warrant expedited processing because there is:

an urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity exists (this option available ONLY for requesters primarily engaged in disseminating information)

Specific Justification for Expedited Processing:

Tri-Valley CAREs asks that our request receive expedited processing because there is a compelling need for these documents. The information contained in these documents, which concerns the future of Site 300, will be disseminated to the public. Both access of knowledge to facilitate community planning and access to knowledge with regard to the safety of the neighborhoods that make up those communities are vital to the everyday decisions of the families and businesses in areas near Site 300. Timely disclosure is of the essence.

GAP's Public Interest Status and History

GAP is a non-profit, non-partisan, public interest organization chartered under IRS Code §501 (C)(3) as a non-profit, educational and charitable organization. We seek to serve the public through achieving governmental accountability by protecting and encouraging federal and corporate employees who observe or are victimized by wrongdoing, gross waste of public funds, threats to public health and safety, environmental contamination, corruption, abuse of the public trust and other abuses of power.

GAP accomplishes these goals primarily by conducting advocacy campaigns before Congress, through the media, and for the general public and by providing legal representation to whistleblowers to combat the retaliation they have suffered in exercising their right of occupational free speech. Our twin aims are to promote corporate and government accountability and to expose, investigate, and correct substantive problems that formed the basis of protected whistleblowing disclosures. GAP's role is well-recognized by the courts and, as an organization, has informational standing under the First Amendment protecting its receipt of disclosed information. Taylor v. RTC, 56 F.3d 1437 (D.C. Cir. 1995); United States v. Garde, 573 F. Supp. 604 (D.D.C. 1987); see, generally, Virginia Pharmacy Bd. v. Virginia Consumer Council, 425 U.S. 748, 756-57 (1976).

GAP has a nearly 30-year history of working in the public interest. GAP does not take individual cases based on the client's ability to pay, how much money GAP believes it can recover in legal fees through litigation or any other commercial interest. Rather, GAP takes cases of legitimately harassed whistleblowers, often pro-bono (without charge), that further public policy or legislative changes that make the law stronger for workers who witness and choose to tell the truth about corporate and taxpayer-financed wrongdoing and to pursue exposure and resolution of the wrongdoing. It is through this work and with the help of whistleblowers that GAP has, among other things, pushed for enactment of several whistleblower protection statutes, exposed unhealthy food at supermarket chains, pushed for independent reviews of the safety of the Alaska pipeline, exposed the threat of explosion in waste tanks at the Hanford nuclear site, and pushed for policy reform within numerous executive agencies. All this activity is done with the interest of the public in mind.

GAP's Investigation and Reasons for this Request

Presently, GAP is conducting an investigation under its International Program to obtain and disclose evidence of fraud and other misconduct in the state-owned assets privatization program in Azerbaijan, including, but not limited to, information that the United States Government and companies, other business or investment entities, institutions, organizations or individuals have engaged in wrongdoing. As part of this work, GAP is investigating the possible retaliation suffered by investor-whistleblower GAP attorneys represent in his effort to uncover the truth about the Azeri state-owned assets privatization investment schemes allegedly masterminded by Viktor Kozeny and others. former Senator George Mitchell, and other American investors lost everything they invested in these schemes. GAP is presently working with a Congressional Committee and media outlets that are interested in obtaining the results of GAP's investigations and bringing these issues to light.

The New York County District Attorney has indicted Mr. Kozeny for his role in the Azerbaijan state-owned assets privatization investment schemes. In an October 2003 press release, the District Attorney described the issues in the indictment as follows:

VIKTOR KOZENY has been indicted on 15 counts of Grand Larceny in the First Degree and two counts of Criminal Possession of Stolen Property in the First Degree. The defendant is charged with stealing $182 million from fifteen investment funds managed by Omega Advisors, which is located at 88 Pine Street in Manhattan. Investors included Columbia University, which lost $15 million, and The Common Fund, a non-profit investment fund for colleges, universities and other not-for-profits, which lost $4.5 million.

A lengthy investigation conducted before a grand jury empanelled in January, 2002 was necessary because many of the witnesses lived abroad and documents had to be gathered from Eastern Europe, the Channel Islands and Switzerland, among other places. This investigation revealed that the defendant persuaded investment managers at Omega to invest in vouchers and options in anticipation of the privatization of Azerbaijan's state-owned national oil company, SOCAR (State Oil Company of the Azerbaijani Republic).

Privatization vouchers are used by nations, including many former Soviet-bloc countries, when state-owned assets are being sold to the public - "privatized." Vouchers are distributed to the nation's citizens to give them an opportunity to participate in the sale of the state's assets, when those assets are put up for sale. Vouchers are bearer instruments that could be freely traded, purchased or sold. In the case of Azerbaijan, non-citizens who wished to purchase state-owned properties were required to purchase so-called options from the government in addition to the vouchers, which could be bought on the open market. For every voucher a non-citizen purchased, they had to also purchase an option in order to exercise the voucher. Thus, the options operated, in effect, as a tax on foreign investments.

In this case, the defendant was to have invested in vouchers and options both his own money and funds being managed by Omega Advisers. The defendant promised the investment managers for the fifteen funds that their investments would not be used to purchase his block of vouchers and options but would be used to purchase an additional $182 million worth of vouchers and options for their funds from the market and the Azerbaijan government. This would have ensured that, together, the defendant and the Omega investors would have a controlling block of the vouchers and options needed to purchase SOCAR, in the event it was put up for sale.

Contrary to defendant's representations and promises, and unbeknownst to the Omega investors, the defendant used Omega's funds to buy out his own position. In fact, the defendant had misrepresented the nature of his own investment, stating he owned 300,000 options when he actually owned 10 million. Of the funds invested through Omega, $95 million was used to purchase vouchers and options owned by the defendant. Since the defendant had obtained his vouchers and options at a fraction of the price at which he sold them, he realized a profit of $93 million on these transactions alone.

The indictment further charges that the defendant stole an additional $14 million invested through Omega by using their clients' money for personal expenses. Eleven million dollars was used to pay off a personal credit line at Alfa Bank in Moscow. Another $3 million was used to purchase luxury home furnishings and to meet various other expenses associated with the defendant's homes in Aspen, Colorado and Lyford Cay, The Bahamas.

The investigation is continuing as to the disposition of the additional $73 million the defendant stole from Omega's clients.¹

Thus far, Mr. Kozeny has avoided extradition from his home in The Bahamas and has yet to be prosecuted under the indictment.

<http://www.manhattanda.org/whatsnew/press/2003-10-02.shtml> (as of April 30, 2008)

Beyond Mr. Kozeny's alleged individual wrongdoing, there is a labyrinth of "special purpose entities" (SPEs), trusts, corporations, and other purported business entities that may be used to misinform investors and move money and property around the world without oversight or detection. GAP seeks to fully expose the alleged misuse of these business entities by Mr. Kozeny and others in an effort to inform the public and bring about legislative reform and financial accountability at the national and international levels.

Dissemination of the Requested Information

In our efforts to eliminate fraud and illegality in the government and major private institutions, GAP works closely with Members of Congress, the media, and the public to alert them to such irregularities. In all of its work, GAP promotes transparency and good government that is fully accountable to its citizens. The information requested will be used in connection with a campaign aimed at key decision-makers at the federal level, the general public, and self-selected subscribers.

The combined circulation and viewer-base of our national, regional, and self-subscribed outlets ensure that the information will, indeed, be widely distributed to diverse segments of the public who will benefit from the legal disclosures requested above. On average, GAP's website receives 70,000 visits per month. In addition, GAP has over 14,000 subscribers to its newsletter and e-news letter. As a consequence, articles and information published by GAP will enhance the public's understanding of government operations.

Non-commercial use of the Requested Information

Disclosure of this information by GAP is in no way connected with any commercial interest since GAP is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization under § 501 (c)(3) of the IRS Code. The information we are seeking is crucial to advance public knowledge and will not be put to any commercial use.

Request to Expedite

GAP has a compelling need to receive the requested information promptly and requests that the agency expedite processing of GAP's request. See, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E). The urgent nature of this request is established by several important concerns.

- First, _____ has been subjected to indictment and has a trial pending in federal court in the Southern District of New York. The information sought will assist _____ in obtaining vindication from the federal government's charges. Further, _____ has asserted that his indictment was politically motivated and GAP is investigating this issue to determine if the federal government has acted unethically or illegally. Absent the expedited disclosure of the requested records, Mr. Bourke may suffer the loss of his constitutionally protected rights to liberty and due process.

- Second, dissemination of the requested information will aid individual and institutional investors in avoiding significant losses from such elaborate and well disguised international investment schemes.
- Third, GAP needs immediate access to the requested records in order to assess and present the information to interested committees of the U.S. Congress. The sooner Congress can investigate these issues and begin the process of instituting legislative reforms the sooner protections for the investing public will be put into place.

I hereby certify that the forgoing concerns evidencing compelling need to expedite the processing of this FOIA request to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. Accordingly, I expect that you will act on this distinct request for expedited processing within ten calendar days of receipt and grant it under the statutory standard.

To the extent that the information requested is voluminous or may require some time for a proper search, GAP will certainly work with the agency FOIA official assigned to develop a plan and timetable for a partial and then complete response. Please contact me to discuss a plan to facilitate the agency's response.

Timing of Agency's Response

Please be reminded that under the Freedom of Information Act, we are entitled to a response to the request to expedite within ten calendar days and a substantive response to this FOIA request within twenty working days. Should the request to expedite and/or this FOIA request be denied for any reason, we ask that a detailed explanation be provided along with the name and contact information of the person to whom administrative appeals should be addressed.

Thank you in advance for your assistance and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Condit

Dear Ms. Lawson :

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request the following:

All documents including but not limited to cables, emails, memos, slides, and training materials concerned with 1) evaluating, recording, and reporting the origin, source, and other provenance information for Iraqi records (sometimes referred to as "Operation Iraqi Freedom" documents) uncovered in Iraq since March 19, 2003] 2) assessing the reliability of these documents as sources for information and/or intelligence. If you regard any of these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable non exempt portions of documents. To permit me to reach an intelligent and informed decision whether or not to file an administrative appeal of any denied material, please describe any withheld records (or portions thereof) and explain the basis for your exemption claims.

Re: Request under the FOIA, in reply refer to Archive# 20080801DOE003

Dear Ms. Lawson :

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request the following:

All documents including but not limited to briefing materials, cables, letters, memos, and reports concerned with United Nations Monitoring, Verification and Inspection Commission (UNMOVIC) inspections of Iraqi sites suspected of housing Iraqi non-conventional weapons programs (nuclear, biological, chemical, and missile) from February 1 through February 28, 2003, including a February 8 raid by U.N. Team Bravo at Djerf al-Naddaf, suspected to be a site for the production of mobile biological weapon labs, and all documents concerned with International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) analyses of the results of these inspections. Please include records from the Office of Intelligence and Counterintelligence and any other DOE components concerned with nonproliferation in your review.

If you regard any of these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable non exempt portions of documents. To permit me to reach an intelligent and informed decision whether or not to file an administrative appeal of any denied material, please describe any withheld records (or portions thereof) and explain the basis for your exemption claims.

As a representative of the news media, the National Security Archive qualifies for "representative of the news media" status under 5 U.S.C. Sec. 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) and, therefore, may not be charged search and review fees. (See National Security Archive v. U.S. Department of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381 (D.C. Cir. 1989), cert denied, 110 S Ct. 1478 (1990)). This request is made as part of a scholarly and news research project that is intended for publication and is not for commercial use. Mr. Clarence H. (Bud) Albright, Jr.
Under Secretary of Energy
US/Forrestal Building
U.S. Department of Energy
1000 Independence Ave., S.W.
Washington, DC 20585

Dear Mr. Albright,

Intellectual Ventures, a Bellevue, Washington based company, is currently investigating alternative nuclear power system designs and configurations. Our conceptual design work is focused on reactor designs initially proposed for development by Dr. Edward Teller and other leading US nuclear scientists. These design concepts have led our scientific teams to conclude that a fast reactor using metal fuel is the optimum configuration to meet our design and performance objectives. Our goal is to develop sufficient designs, tests, and engineering to enable the nuclear industry to realize more sustainable reactor concepts.

As a part of our conceptual design development work, Intellectual Ventures requests access to Hanford's Fast Flux Test Facility nuclear core data and fuels performance records. These records are required to allow Intellectual Ventures' science staff to benchmark our computer codes for core performance modeling of our concept designs.

Our staff and consultants have searched the publicly available records at the Office of Scientific & Technical Information (OSTI), the National Technical Information Service (NTIS), and local Hanford technical library sources. Although we have identified numerous technical articles, these reports lack the raw core data needed by our team for benchmarking our computer codes.

We understand this data is currently in storage on the Hanford Site. However, the data and records have been classified as Applied Technology, and access requires a specific process to be followed. Although we have not attempted nor plan to participate in the Global Nuclear Energy Partnership (GNEP), our concept designs are wholly consistent with the Advanced Fuel Cycle Initiative (AFCI) and stated objectives for advanced reactor design concepts, which merit enthusiastic support from the Department to facilitate our access to the requested records.

Intellectual Ventures will comply with all access control requirements for any materials that may eventually be in our possession, and the materials will remain non-exclusive. Please provide us with the appropriate contact points within the Department so that we can start the authorization process for access to these records.

Sincerely,

John Gilleland

Subject: request concerning [cost of declassification review]

Dr. Weston-Dawkes,

Every year my organization, OpenTheGovernment.org, puts out a Secrecy Report Card that includes information on classification, declassification and the costs related thereto. In 2006, we drew on some numbers that had been provided by the Office of Documents Review to the National Security Archive. William Burr at the National Security Archive told me that he thinks in 2006 he asked you for assistance in obtaining the information below. Your assistance in this would be greatly appreciated. I am aware of the unclassified report to Congress, but it does not contain the information we are seeking. Please consider this a FOIA request for the information specified below, if that is what is required. I would appreciate receiving this information by 15 August in order to update our report. We are seeking the numbers through 31 Dec 2007. This is the information given in 2006 to the Archive that I am attempting to update:

"...Under the 1998 Kyl-Lott amendments, DOE has spent $22 million while surveying more than 200 million pages of released documents. DOE has reported to Congress that 6,640 pages have been withdrawn from public access (at a cost of $3,313 per page).

Information provided by Mr. Kenneth Stein, Office of Classification, Department of Energy in e-mail, 8 August 2006. Mr. James Wendt, Office of Document Reviews, provided an annual breakdown for the expenditures: FY 99: 1.992M; FY 00: 3.582 M; FY 01: 3.653M; FY 02:

Thank you for any assistance you can provide. It will be greatly appreciated.

Fee waiver requested

Dear FOI Officer:

Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, I request access to and copies of all FOIA requests relating to Nuclear Fusion and Fission research from the time period of January 1, 2008 - June 30, 2008.

Please waive any applicable fees. Release of the information is in the public interest because it will contribute significantly to public understanding of government operations and activities.

If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the act. I will also expect you to release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I, of course, reserve the right to appeal your decision to withhold any information or to deny a waiver of fees.

As I am making this request as a scholar and this information is of timely value, I would appreciate your communicating with me by telephone, rather than by mail, if you have questions regarding this request.

I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I'm writing to request your assistance in determining the following:

1. Contractual relationship between the Dept. of Energy and Spencer Chemical Company/Kansas City Offices from 1958-1963.
2. Contractual relationship between the Dept. of Energy and Spencer Chemical Company/Jayhawk Works from 1958-1963.
3. Copies of documents that shows the contractual relationship whereby Spencer Chemical Company provided enriched uranium and thorium for the nuclear weapons program and was paid monies for this product.

Thanks for your assistance in this matter as I would like to get these issues resolved. If you have any questions, I may be reached at _____ or by mail at _____

Type of Media (if provided):

Other: Web site

Fees and Fee Waivers:

I request a waiver or reduction of fees.

Waiver or Reduction of Fees Factors (if provided):

1. The subject of the request: Whether the subject of the requested records concerns "the operations or activities of the government."

The requested records concern official correspondence that shaped the development of an important federal program.

2. The informative value of the information to be disclosed: Whether the disclosure is "likely to contribute" to an understanding of government operations or activities.

FOIA-2008-000439

3. The requested records will be used to build a publicly-accessible web-based database of government programs. It is necessary to know whose input contributed to the federal loan guarantee program to understand the process by which the program was developed and approved.

3. The contribution to an understanding by the general public of the subject likely to result from disclosure, taking into account your ability and intent to disseminate the information to the public in a form that can further understanding of the subject matter.

Since its inception two years ago, Sunlight has funded many projects that have broadened public knowledge about government, including Congresspedia.org and Fortune 535. We also funded OMB Watch, which created www.fedspending.org, which just received its 10 millionth search, and gets about 1 million searches per month. Our work receives wide press coverage, from CNN to the New York Times to popular blogs. These records will be used for a project that, like fedspending.org, will be publicly accessible and which we expect will get wide press coverage.

4. The significance of the contribution to public understanding: Whether the disclosure is likely to contribute "significantly" to public understanding of government operations or activities.

The loan guarantee program about which we are requesting disclosure is potentially worth billions of federal dollars. Understanding the process by which the program developed is of great importance to taxpayers.

5. The existence and magnitude of a commercial interest: Whether the requester has a commercial interest that would be furthered by the requested disclosure, and, if so

The Sunlight Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonpartisan non-profit organization. Our interest in the records is to advance public knowledge about government, not to profit financially from the disclosure. Sunlight disseminates information to concerned citizens, policymakers, and the media via its Web site at www.sunlightfoundation.com.

6. The primary interest in disclosure: Whether the magnitude of the identified commercial interest of the requester is sufficiently large, in comparison with the public interest in disclosure, that disclosure is "primarily in the commercial interest of the requester."
