

Chicago

DeWillican Middleton
Small Business Program Manager
July 29, 2013

- The majority of supplies and services acquired by the Chicago Office is provided by our Management and Operating (M&O) contractors.

- Contact each of the laboratories' and develop a relationship with the small business liaison officers. The liaisons will have information on the upcoming acquisitions for the future and other outreach activities that are planned.

Chicago

- M&O Contractor Liaisons
- Ames Laboratory - Andrea Spiker
spiker@ameslab.gov
- Argonne National Laboratory – Lee Zachos
- lzachos@anl.gov
- Brookhaven National Lab – Jill Clough-Johnson
- clough@bnl.gov

Chicago

- Fermi National Accelerator Lab – Sandra Efsthathiou
- sandraef@fnal.gov
- Princeton Plasma Physics Lab – Arlene White
- awhite@pppl.gov

Chicago

- For other acquisitions related to energy research and development or support service activities in which we purchase please contact me.
- The office purchases items, such as Hydrochloric acid, custom tubes for shipping, ozone detector tubes, and training.

Chicago

- Attend outreach sessions and network with other small businesses
- Be strategic and plan ahead for requirements,
- Past acquisition history
- Respond to sources sought
- Develop a relationship with the local PTAC office
- Be diligent

Contact

- DeWillican Middleton
- Dewillican.middleton@ch.doe.gov
- Telephone: 630 252- 1629
- www.ch.doe.gov