

A History of Secure Transportation

- The transportation of the CEUSP material in casks will be made by Hittman Transport, a commercial carrier
- Hittman Transport is a specialty company whose primary mission is transporting hazardous materials
- Transport method meets all of the requirements of the Department of Energy, Nuclear Regulatory Commission, and Department of Transportation for shipment of hazardous radioactive material
- Hittman Transport maintains drivers with DOE security clearances and all shipments will be escorted by armed Federal officers

By the Numbers: 1977 Hittman Transport began supporting the nuclear industry

Safely driven miles by Hittman Transport 180 MILLION

300 Radioactive shipments per month average by Hittman Transport

Hittman Transport drivers' average number of years experience

26 | 196K

Completed Hittman Transport shipments without significant accident or loss of material

Miles the Department has been responsible for transporting DOE-owned cargo with no accidents causing a fatality or release of radioactive material

140 MILLION

The Department has provided safe and secure transportation support via 24-hour emergency contact with law enforcement and emergency response

3 DECADES

