

First Steps Toward Tribal Weatherization

Leslie Isham
Director, LCO Energy Project
Assistant Director, LCO Public Works
9796N Cty Hwy K
Hayward, WI 54843

About Lac Courte Oreilles (LCO)

- Located in upper Northwest Wisconsin
- Land base is about 76,000 acres
- 7,275 members about 2,700 live on or near the Reservation
- BIA Labor Report 2003 states 75% of Tribal Members are unemployed
- Median income is $25,764
- During the winter temperatures drop as low as -40° below

Sustaining the Natural and Economic Resources of the LCO Ojibwe

- Minimum of 20 persons trained
- Reduce the use and cost of utilities by 25%
- Increase of community awareness
- Completion of self sustaining weatherization program

Project Location

- Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe Community College
- Reserve 16-Plex Elderly complex

Project Participants

- Leslie Isham
- LCO Development
- LCO Housing Authority
- LCOOCC
- LCO K-12
- The Community

Any Questions

Chi-Miigwech (Thank you)